President's Message

Dear Bondholders, Members, Tennis Players and Friends,

So many changes are happening at WTC.

The most obvious is that our illustrious head pro and club manager, Karen Gill, is stepping down. Karen has done such a wonderful job for so many years she will be impossible to replace. I am so thankful for the years she has dedicated to make our club such a very special place.

In 2018 we will have both a new head pro, Mitch Adler, and a new club manager, Sharon Crego. You know Mitch. He has been with us for a year and is a seasoned pro with experience as head pro at many clubs around the country. Mitch is an excellent teacher and will improve your singles, doubles or team play. Look over our calendar to see some of the new offerings Mitch has added. Up your game, a few lessons really make a difference. Support our new pro.

Sharon Crego just can't get enough tennis, and now she is bringing her professional talents as our new club manager. Sharon will improve our record keeping, keep track of our membership and generally oversee courts, staff and events. She will work closely with Mitch to keep everything running smoothly.

Gail Bradney will be working the desk on Fridays. Thank you Gail.

In 2017 we had muskrats wreaking havoc with our little pond; they nearly flooded our pump house and then caused reduced water levels. Ulster County helped but muskrats will surely be a recurring problem, so we faced the music and installed a new system to give us consistent water for years to come. This is essential for our courts. Fortunately, we were able to use $10,000 from our reserve fund to pay for this major improvement. Because we have a growing membership and watch our budget, we will not have to raise dues this year. We have added a new membership category to encourage afternoon players.

I feel it is important to maintain the open, community-friendly WTC culture that we have all created by being a part of the club. We are excited to have so many exceptional people working and playing at the club. So many of our members step up and help when needed. Thank you. I am so proud to be a part of the Woodstock Tennis Club.

See you on the courts.
